

BLISS IN A CELL IS LAID ON THICK

TRAMP'S ROSY DREAM IS RUTH- LESSLY DISSIPATED.

James Martin Says Clinton People Told Him the Jail Was an Ideal Winter Resort, But When He Got Here They Gave Him a Saw and a Ball and Chain.

From the heights of rosy anticipation deep into the bottomless pit of despair, Turnkey North east James Martin yesterday. Martin is a gentleman of the free air and free lunch, otherwise a "boboe" called by the police "boe" for short. He came into Clinton on the axle of a freight car the other day, and having no visible means of support except his legs, he was promptly convicted of being a vagrant and sent to jail for five days. He came to Janesville with a 6x9 smile, and a policeman, and prepared to live like a prince.

"Mr. Martin, we have a little wood that needs sawing, and here is a bit of jewelry for you," remarked the turnkey as he brought out a pretty red "buck saw" and a ball and chain. Martin's face fell, and they feared that he would faint. He took the saw and allowed the ball to be fastened to his ankle with an air of deep humility. Two or three times he rubbed the saw against a stick of second growth oak, and then strength failed him and he sat down.

"Mr. Turnkey, can I have an interview with a reporter?" he asked.

"What?"

"An interview with a reporter."

"I guess so," remarked the turnkey, who is always willing to accommodate the guests. Then Martin looked relieved and worked the saw quite vigorously for a man of his temperament.

"I want to tell you how I was abducted and my confiding nature ruthlessly stung," he remarked. "When I reached Clinton I was comfortably situated. I got off of the truck, stretched my legs and a man came up and said:

"Say Bum, do you want to go to Heaven?"

Jail Life a Team of Bliss.

"When I recovered my senses, for the question staggered me, my train had gone. I couldn't live on the two square feet of ground upon which I stood, so I questioned his nobles about the place he had in mind.

"It's the Janesville jail, de guy—I mean gentleman," said Mr. Martin continued. "Up there they feed you on reed birds an' lobster an' all the delicacies of the season. Punk is barred and dey's rapped on salt horse, dat is to say, bread an' pork is tabooed. The man said that the jail had carpets on the floors an' that cards and tobacco were as free as the air we breathe. 'They've got a cook as is a cook' sez he, 'and if you registers with Mr. Appleby you'll never forget it' and I guess I won't. Look at me mitte, dere's blisters on 'em. Excuse my technical language, but my tender palms are not used to dis business, and the stick aint more than half sawed troo. I've been imposed upon and I want de newspapers to take de part of us de down trodden gents, me and me pardner, Mr. Burke, and tell de people how we was conned, or more more correctly stated, imposed upon.

"I didn't expect to find carpets on the jail floor but I did expect to have a bed and a pillow but I got the stone floor and a newspaper to rest my head on. They say it costs the county $8 apiece to bring us lads up from Clinton and I just want to tell the tax payers that the money is wasted. There may be something in it for the officers but there ain't anything in it for us lads besides they didn't tell us what we was goin' against. They said it wuz a snap an' got me to come up but I see the game now. They get their fees and us fellys get the worst of it. Its a skin game and I want to register my rap, that is to say my remonstrance."

Mr. Burke corroborated Mr. Martin's story, but whether or not the latter's tale is true is not known. At any rate a good many tramps do come from Clinton, more, in fact, are segt from that vicinity than any other part of Rock county, a fact that all the ex-sheriffs are free to state.

Undisputable Facts.

Since Pickwick clothing came into the market, merchant tailor made clothing has taken a great backset, as before this clothing was produced, odd shaped boys and men had to go to mercantile tailors to get fitted and pay $40 a suit. With the Pickwicks we can fit any shaped boy or man, and sell the suit for $20 to $25, a saving of from $15 to $20. A fit is guaranteed in each and every case, and this is something no other ready made clothing house in the city can offer. We fit people—live ones. We don't fit dummies in front of our store.

THE JURY SYSTEM IS NOT PERFECT

JOHN M. WHITEHEAD'S IDEA OF EXISTING CONDITIONS.

The Present Plan is Entirely Different From The Original and Men Who Know About the Cases are Disqualified Instead of Being Accepted—Majority Rules Conscience.

John M. Whitehead pointed out the defects in the jury system at the last meeting of the Beloit Civic club. The Janesville attorney followed John C. Rood, of Beloit, and spoke of the qualifications of a jurymen in a federal court. The law requires that men ever guilty of treasonable conduct shall be debarred from federal jury duty service, and he thinks it wise that they should be when the socialistic tendencies of the day are considered.

The present jury system has been entirely transformed from the original plan. Then a jurymen was selected because of what he knew in the case. Now a citizen is disqualified if he knows anything about the case in question, and many are led to think he knows anything any way. Yet the most objectionable feature of our jury laws, is the required unanimity in rendering a verdict. A jurymen is sworn to be governed by his conscience and then he is shut up until his conscience is controlled by the majority, at least that's the idea. If anything can be done to improve the system it would be to let a majority render a verdict. Mr. Whitehead spoke of the custom in Chicago of watching a jury by detectives, showing how suspicious both sides are of that body in big cases.

Quality, Not Quantity.

A jury should understand that it is not the amount of testimony in a case but its character which should give weight. A good jurymen will use his common sense in deciding his character of evidence. He spoke of the growing tendency to find and allow large damages against rich corporations and believed that such findings are dangerous to the people's rights. Most damage cases are tried by attorneys on shares and there grows a determination to win cases which would not prevail were the considerations not so great to lawyers. Yet he knew no remedy for this unless it is laws limiting the liability. The spirit of socialism is scarifying the public conscience to countenance injustice against rich corporations. Right is right, whether a citizen be poor or rich.

The conduct of the people in law and more especially in criminal matters, reflects the moral tone of the public. In sections where lynchings are common, a low tone of public morals exists.

Lawyers are slow to want new laws created because their work is based on precedents.

BEFORE HOT SPRINGS

I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease, I had spent hundreds of dollars trying various remedies and physicians. My fingernails came off, and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to but very soon became disgusted, and decided to try S.S.S. The effect was truly wonderful. I commenced to recover after taking the first bottle, and by the time I had taken twelve bottles, I was entirely cured—cured by S.S.S. when the world-renowned Hot Springs had failed.

MENTION GOOD MEN FOR CITY OFFICES

THE REPUBLICANS WHOSE NAMES ARE SUGGESTED.

Several Candidates For Mayor, City Clerk and Street Commissioner While Some Aldermanic Choices Have Been Expressed—Harmony and Party Loyalty Insure Success

Chairman T. W. Goldin, of the republican city committee, intimates that the call for the republican city convention and ward caucuses will be issued some day next week. He is now corresponding with the chairman of the republican state central committee in relation to the appointment of delegates. At the last state convention a resolution was adopted allowing a delegate for every fifty republican votes or a major fraction thereof, and Chairman Goldin favors adopting this rule. As soon as a reply is received, a meeting of the committees will be called, and details for the caucuses and city convention will be arranged.

In the meantime the canvass for place progresses harmoniously. Never before in the history of local campaigns has there been less wrangling between the contending candidates. All are apparently willing to abide harmoniously by the decision of the convention.

Strong Men Mentioned.

There are a large number of candidates mentioned for city offices, while but few are named for ward offices. The following names have been favorably mentioned:

For Mayor—John Thoroughgood, C. D. Child, William Ruger, John M. Whitehead, J. W. Sale, W. T. Vankirk, C. L. Valentine. For City Clerk—F. L. Clemons, James A. Denniston, A. E. Badger, C. E. Church, Frank S. Lawrence, C. E. Brown. For Street Commissioner—J. E. Croft, A. E. Rich, C. H. Keuck, Thomas Drummond, H. B. Kenniston, Milo Curtis, J. H. Watson.

For Justice of the Peace no candidates have been named and the same is true of the Seal or for Weights and Measures.

Few Aldermanic Suggestions.

Few names have been mentioned in connection with the nominations for aldermen. In the first ward the names of James Shesher and Silas Hayner are frequently used, while in the second ward the names of O. F. Nowlan, Wallace Carrier, S. C. Burnham and W. B. Stoddard are talked of. In the third ward the names of E. Ray Inman, J. C. Brownell, R. W. King, E. W. Putnam and David W. Watt are mentioned.

There are two aldermen to be elected from the Fourth ward and one from the Fifth, but at this time republicans have brought out no candidates.

The indications are that the present members of the county board of supervisors will be re-nominated, they being D. P. Smith in the First ward; W. T. Vankirk in the Second; Fenner Kimball in the Third.

School commissioners are to be elected as follows: One at large in place of P. J. Mount (dem.) First ward, T. W. Goldin (rep.); Third ward, John Cunningham, (rep.); Fifth ward, John Weisend, (dem.)

Constables are also to be elected in all the wards, the present force being: First Ward—H. B. Kenniston, (rep.) Second Ward—A. K. Cutts, (rep.) Third Ward—Wallace Cochrane (rep.)

Fourth Ward—John W. Hogan, (dem.) Fifth Ward—M. Conroy, (dem.)

A COLD WAVE COMING SUNDAY

Problem Solved.

The problem of high prices for tinware is solved. We are satisfying everybody. Plenty will be in every house to last for the next two years to come. The way we do it is by the prices we name. Having bought this stock at our own prices in Chicago, we are selling it at our own prices in Janesville. It's hard for our high priced competitors to swallow, but then we can't help it, the prices we name make us popular with the masses and that's what we are after, but we want to say to you right here, the tinware is going very fast—will not last much longer, and unless you come soon, you will miss the chance of a lifetime. MAY SELL NEBRASKA SUPPLIES. J. C. Hill Says He Can See No Other Way Out of It.

"I think I shall be compelled to sell the supplies that are held in the Janesville depot," said J. C. Hill, who has charge of the goods gathered for the benefit of the Nebraska sufferers, this morning. "There does not seem to be any other way out of it. The money would be of use to them while the flour that we gathered could not be sold for enough to pay the freight on the clothing. Perhaps the Associated Charities will buy the whole thing."

There is a good deal of a misunderstanding as to the railroad transportation. The Chicago & Northwestern will convey the goods to Omaha but from there no transportation can be secured. Mayor Thoroughgood, who took an active part in the work, wrote to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road in regard to the matter and received the following letter from the general manager.

HON. JOHN THOROUGHGOOD, MAYOR, JANESVILLE, WIS. DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 7th inst. has been referred to Mr. G. W. Holdredge of Omaha who is general manager of all our Nebraska lines. For your information I will say that after hauling immense quantities of clothing and supplies into Nebraska free, to such an extent that there did not appear to be any pressing necessity for our making free billings any longer, we discontinued taking anything free on the 23d ult. Mr. Holdredge will write you about the matter. Very truly,

W. G. MERRILL, General Manager.

BAR MAID WAS A FIGHTER.

Man From Watertown Couldn't Boss a Lady Saloonist.

A brawny Bower City barmaid tossed a man into the street last night and then sauntered back behind the bar as carelessly as if the occurrence was of the every day order. The man claimed to be from Watertown and insisted on airing his opinions in a louder tone of voice than the regulations of the house allowed. The landlady was alone in the saloon at the time and told him to keep still. He didn't take the hint, so she proceeded to give him her immediate attention. People who were passing heard a scuffle and saw the stranger emerge from the saloon with more celerity than dignity and heard a feminine voice remark: "Go wan now or I'll break your skull."

BIERKNES HOME FULL OF SORROW

One Child Is Dead and Two More Are Sick.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton L. Bierkness, 106 Terrace street is in mourning over the death of their little daughter, Helma, who died of scarlet fever last night at 12 o'clock, aged three years and six months. The remains were buried in Oak Hill this afternoon, private funeral services being held at the home at 2 o'clock. Two more of Mr. Bierkness' little children are down with the scarlet fever but it is reported that they are doing well, the fever not being of a dangerous type.

Becker-Greier.

Gustav Becker and Miss Ida Greier, both of Edgerton, came to Janesville and were married in the parsonage of St. John's church, by Rev. John Kaempflein.

Advertising Fakes.

The period of business depression has been productive of a great many schemes and novel methods of advertising to increase trade. Some of these are perfectly honorable and legitimate, while others are simply intended to deceive and to take advantage of the credulity of the unsuspecting public. We are dependent on our friends and cannot afford to do other than fairly, even if we were disposed to sacrifice principle when we say that we sell honest goods at lowest prices: we say that which is true.

BAD MRS. C. J. HANLEY LOCKED IN A CELL

WAS SOLICITING MONEY FOR AN ORPHAN BSYLUM.

Chief Acheson Recognized Her As The Woman Arrested For a Swindler's Game Years Ago—Alleged Car Thieves Before the Court—C. F. Turner's Trunk Broken Open.

Mrs. C. J. Hanley's benevolence got her into jail this morning. She represented that she was the agent of a society for the protection and care of orphan children and that Janesville waifs would receive the benefits thereof. She only asked the small sum of a dollar at each place where she called, and pictured the good that would accrue therefrom. Her story didn't hang together so Chief Acheson was notified. The police force were notified to watch for her and Officer Hogan finally ran across her. She was vociferous in her protestations of innocence and gave her address in Chicago to establish her respectability. A telegram was at once sent to the address to see if she told the truth, but no answer had been received at 3 o'clock. When Chief Acheson called to see her at the jail he at once recognized her as the woman he arrested three or four years ago while working a similar game. She did not weaken when the chief told her that he knew her, but insisted that she had never been in Janesville before. The last time she was here she used profanity liberally and it took all of her will power to keep from "cussing" the chief when she saw that he recognized her.

Alleged Thieves in Court.

The municipal court room was made to represent the silk department of Marshal Field & Co's dry goods store today. Silks of various grades were piled up around the bar of the court, awaiting identification by a number of the employees of that establishment. The goods were those taken from the Northwestern car at Shopiere, for the robbing of which Crowley, Franklin and Flynn are undergoing examination today. The state has some thirty witnesses in attendance, a number being those employed in Marshal Field & Co's establishment, Chicago, beside railway men, detectives, and Conductor Giles, and his crew, who were in charge of the train robbed. District Attorney W. A. Jackson and W. G. Wheeler are for the State, while William Smith appears for the defense. The defendants appear unconcerned as to what is going on, and during the taking of testimony they were engaged in reading newspapers. The examination will hardly conclude today.

C. F. Turner's Trunk Looted.

C. F. Turner's trunk was broken open at Gratiot last night by thieves, who forced the depot window, broke the ticket rack open, smashed the money drawer, and broke a penny-in-the-slot machine to bits in search of money. They secured but very little plunder, as Mr. Turner's trunk contained, mostly, his samples for E. J. Green's wholesale paper house, and were of no use to the thieves. The same gang, supposedly, burglarized a grocery and hardware store also, getting $500, mostly in cutlery, etc., from the hardware store. No trace of them was found by the police. Eugene Botsford, formerly of this city, is the station and express agent at Gratiot and discovered the crime when he went to work this morning. Mr. Turner returned home this morning and says that his loss is small. His trunk was the only piece of baggage in the depot at the time of the robbery.

Turnkey North has two new lady guests at the jail now, they being Mary Dago and Anna Helmer, two French Canadian girls who got receipted board bills for the next sixty days from the court. They claimed to have come from Beaver Dam.
